The United States of America, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits the following response in opposition to the motion to expedite defendant's motion to set aside default judgment, dkt. #58, filed in this matter on October 30, 2007 (motion to expedite):

The motion to expedite was filed by Robert Parsons and Justin Parsons, the purported trustee and purported beneficiary, respectively, of the defendant Creative Solutions Business Organization. In that motion, Messrs. Parsons state that expedition of their motion to set aside default judgment in this matter is necessary because a judicial sale of the subject property is scheduled for November 11, 2007. In fact, no such sale is scheduled. The United States has not yet taken any action to advertise or schedule the sale of the subject property, thus, expedition of the motion to set aside default judgment is unnecessary.

Accordingly, the United States respectfully requests that the Court deny the motion to expedite and allow the United States the standard 15-day period within which to respond to the motion to set aside default judgment, as provided in local rule D.Ak. LR 7.1.

Dated this 31st day of October, 2007.
